

Real So Cal Soccer Club Player Code of Conduct for Overnight Trips

Players and parents please read the code of conduct, sign and return to your team manager.

1. Players will be respectful at all times. All comments and actions disrespectful to any fellow teammate, coach, manager, chaperone, RSC staff, referee, airline personnel, or hotel staff member are not acceptable.

(TSA directive from their web site: “Think before you speak. Belligerent behavior, inappropriate jokes and threats will not be tolerated. They will result in delays and possibly missing your flight. Local law enforcement may be called as necessary.”)

2. Players will adhere to the “Lights Out” assigned time. This means players are to be in their assigned rooms, the television must be off, the lights must be off, and all of the players must be in bed by the stated time. Coaches/Chaperones will verify the rooms are in compliance.
3. Players are not to make loud noises in the hotel. It is important to be conscientious and courteous to other guests staying in the hotel. This means NO running up and down hallways, knocking loudly on doors, hanging out in the hallways, slamming doors, shouting or talking excessively, playing loud music, turning up the television, and most importantly, practicing or playing with soccer balls.
4. Players may not use room service or order movies. All calls for extra towels, pillows, etc. must go through your Team Manager/Head Chaperone. Players are not to call the front desk.
5. Players are responsible for keeping Hotel Rooms free of trash and orderly. Players must maintain clear pathways to allow hotel housekeeping staff easy access for cleaning.
6. Players and their parents are financially responsible for any damage on the trip including, but not limited to, the bus, team vans, or hotel property.
7. AT NO TIME are player’s allowed in a room of opposite gender. This means even crossing the threshold of the door is an infraction punishable by immediate removal from the trip at their parent’s expense, with no reimbursement of any trip expenses.
8. All Players are responsible for bringing their entire Uniform Kit (Carry On Bag for all flights) and all gear needed.
9. Players will wear their club-supplied polo shirt, black pants/khaki shorts and warm-up jacket while traveling, in restaurants and in hotel public areas. No non-Nike apparel is permitted while appearing in public places as a member of Real So Cal.
10. Suitcases, Gear Bags, Back Packs must be clearly marked with NAME TAGS supplied by the player.
